

PRESS RELEASE

Interchange wraps up a successful 2017 and looks forward to further expansion in 2018

Prague, 31st January, 2018: The Interchange Group ('Interchange'), one of the leading foreign exchange providers in the world, and in the Czech Republic with 40 local branches, looks back on several positive milestones reached during 2017. and ahead to a further expansion in 2018.

Interchange has been operating on the Central European market for more than a quarter of a century, continuously expanding its network of exchange offices throughout the region. In the Czech Republic, its branch opening programme accelerated considerably during 2017, with 3 new offices opened; Most, Mladá Boleslav – Kosmonosy, and the popular tourist location Stará Louka in Karlovy Vary, plus it also moved its existing Plzeň branch to new premises at the popular location of the Galerie Slovany shopping centre.

The online currency reservation service, which Interchange introduced as a 'pilot project' in its Prague offices in 2016, has also experienced extensive growth over the course of 2017, and it is now offering this service in all of its locations throughout the Czech Republic, including České Budějovice, Děčín, Hradec Králové, Liberec, Mladá Boleslav, Most, Pardubice and Plzeň.

Talking about the company's expansion in the Czech Republic, Alastair Holberton, the Group's CEO said:

'Interchange is strongly represented in the Czech Republic, and last year was one of our best in this market, with several new exchange offices being opened, and our innovative online reservation system becoming popular all over the country. We plan to further expand in 2018.'

Interchange has also been growing its network of exchange offices in other countries in 2017, including two openings in Austria (Parndorf and Salzburg), several branches in Budapest city centre and Budapest Airport, three new locations in South Africa, a new office in the best location in Miami, and a prime location in Warsaw, Poland.

The company has also appointed a new Group COO and its first opening of 2018 has already happened, with two new exchange offices, one in the Katowice Train Station, the largest in the upper Silesian region of Poland, and one in the heart of Wrocław.
